

Teisha Warren was a Teaching Fellow with Citizen Schools, Boston. She has mentored, taught, and advocated for a more strategy-based approach to teaching and learning in the classroom. She obtained M.Ed from Boston College in 2005 with distinction receiving Student Teacher of the Year. She has worked in schools districts in Boston Public Schools (MA), Columbus City Schools (OH), and Charlotte Mecklenburg Schools (NC) and has been recognized repeatedly by her peers with nominations for Teacher of The Year.

Currently licensed as a Superintendent, Principal, and Teacher for all grade levels. Teisha has used her 20 years of experience, to create more inclusive student-centered activities and experiences centered around Entrepreneurship Development. More recently, she has created an 8-tier Entrepreneurship Learning and Development Model, Plan, and Portfolio for students ages 6-18 called TIMEOUT LEARN INC. Teisha Warren has authored over fourteen books and continues her work post pandemic at www.astrokidceoacademics.com.