Dear Larry:

Thank you very much for taking your time today to present at our Social Justice Summit today - The Black-Jew Dialogues at our luncheon and then facilitating your Dialogues On Diversity Workshop afterwards.

As I saw people watching your presentation at lunch, I could see many people really learning. I look forward to seeing how participants will utilize this knowledge in our community.

I truly believe this is one great step in the right direction for social justice.

Again, thank you for everything.
